Schedule & Cruise Itinerary

The cabin Charter cruise begins luxuriating for 3 days at a hotel on the beautiful island Santorini, one of the best-known islands of Greece where towering cliffs crowned by tiny and blindingly- white houses plunge straight into the depths of the sea. Following our short stay in Santorini we start our cruise.

On the 4th day, we welcome our guests onboard and set sail to our first destination island of Paros, a popular island, known for its golden beaches and its prime example of Cycladic architecture.

Day 5 takes us to the island of Naxos known for its mountainous terrain and beautiful beaches and rich in Venetian and Byzantine history.

Day 6 we sail to the island of Mykonos, the world renown cosmopolitan island, it's the tourist Mecca of Greece. This bright and breezy island is favored with fine sandy beaches by day and by night the hum of the bars and throb of discos into the wee hours is all part of the scene.

Day 7 our next destination is Syros which was the largest cultural and trade centre of the Aegean in the 19th century.. From the time of the Fourth Crusade (13th Century) until 1568 Syros belonged to the Duchy of Naxos

Day 8 we set sail for the island of Kea The beautiful 'Chora' on the hill, a huddle of glaring white houses, is well worth a visit. A large lion carved from the rock face is attributed to an Ionian sculptor from around 600 BC

Day 9 our final destination is Athens to the marina Alimos to enjoy the final night on board. Guests will have the night free to stay aboard or take a taxi (15 minutes from the marina) into the Athens center to for a night of night life and great cuisine at any of fine Greek restaurants & Taverns.

Swim stops are weather permitting. Itinerary is subject to weather conditions and sailing is not permitted with Beaufort force 7-8 winds.
